ROASTED ALIVE.
Two Men Burned to Death in the Grain Elevator of Rainwater & Stearns.
A Christmas Shooting Affray at Richmond—Would be Counterfeiter Discharged.

Special to the Gazette.
DALLAS, TEX., Dec. 26.—The grain elevator of Rainwater & Stearns was destroyed by fire to-day. William Kelley, white, and Joe Evans, colored, employees in the elevator, were in the fourth story of the building when the fire started. In the shock-room. The flames in five seconds cut off all avenues of escape. The doomed men discovering this fact threw their hats out of the window to indicate to the crowd in which room they were.
Dave Rainwater, one of the proprietors of the elevator, offered a reward of $2000 each for the rescue of the men.
Ladders were put up, but the man who climbed them was driven back by the flames before he got half way to the window, and the men were left to their fate.
Kelley was an industrious and most exemplary young man, aged 22. He came here from Tennessee several years ago and has since worked in the elevator. His body, which was frightfully burned, was taken from the moldering ruins this afternoon and will be buried by the Dallas Rifles, of which company he was a member.
Joe Evans was a colored man aged about 30. He also had been in the employ of the elevator company several years. His body was found to-night.

There was $12,000 insurance on the building, which about covers the loss. Rainwater & Stearns had $3000 insurance on the stock, and Howard & Rauch had $18,000 insurance on the grain stored in the house. This will not cover the loss of either firm.
Mr. Deen, the engineer, says he had orders to fire up some time before the fire occurred, but failed to do so, and neither he nor anyone else can account for the origin of the fire, as there was no fire about the building from which the conflagration would have started.
The two men who lost their lives entered the elevator to shovel some grain but a few moments before the fire was discovered. It is supposed that when they discovered they could not escape by way of the stairs, they returned to the room from the window of which they threw their hats and waited for rescue, but the flames reached them before their rescuers.
J. B. Simmons and A. E. S. Ineson, who were jailed here a month ago for manufacturing and putting into circulation in Hunt county silver dollars, had an exorbitant trial before Commissioner McCormack to-day and were discharged from custody.
As Charly Pace was escorting a young lady home on horseback at Richardson yesterday a young man named Hays rode alongside of her.
Pace failed to persuade him to desist, and drawing a pistol shot him twice, once in the breast and once in the thigh. Hays' wounds are not dangerous.

BUSINESS NOTES.
CIGAR DEALERS ASSIGN.
NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Joseph Wangler and John E. Wangler, composing the firm of Wangler & Co., cigar dealers, have made an assignment with preferences amounting to $29,000.
AN INJUNCTION DISSOLVED.
NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—The supreme court to-day rendered a decision dissolving the injunction obtained by what is known as the Wolf board of aldermen against the board of aldermen, restraining the latter from transacting any business.
THE UNION PACIFIC ALL RIGHT.
NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—A dispatch from Charles Francis Adams, Jr., to a director of the Union Pacific company, has been made public. He says:
"All stories that the company is in distress for money with which to meet the January and February interest are simply preposterous, manufactured out of whole cloth. We have made no application for money anywhere. Our coupons will be met as promptly as matured."

A GROCERY DEALER FAILS.
Xenia, Ohio, Dec. 26.—John Ewing, a grocery dealer, has failed. His assets are about $27,000; his liabilities about the same.
Chartered at Austin.
Special to the Gazette.
AUSTIN, TEX., Dec. 26.—Chartered:
The Pleasant Mound public cemetery of Dallas county.
Train Robbers Sentenced to the Penitentiary.
LITTLE ROCK, ARK., Dec. 26.—In the circuit court this morning, Adolph Parker and Jack Clifford, two of the recent train robbers, were sentenced to the penitentiary, Parker for six and Clifford for seven years. The trial of Cook, who turned state's evidence, has been postponed until the next term of court.

A Begun Insane Asylum Story.
TAUNTON, MASS., Dec. 26.—The officials of the Taunton insane asylum deny the story telegraphed from Chicago, charging that many insane papers had been shipped West from that and similar institutions. In one case an inmate named Walsh was sent to his uncle in Pullman, Ill., and the authorities have since received a letter from the latter thanking them for their action. No inmates have been sent away except on the request of their friends or with the knowledge that they would be well cared for.
